

I am opposed to any action by the FCC that would weaken New Jersey's the DO NOT CALL law. New Jersey should be free to enact and enforce its own DO NOT CALL law even if it is stricter than the federal one. Since the state and federal DO NOT CALL registries went into effect, my number of calls from telemarketers has dropped from 5-6 per day to 1-2 per month which I much prefer.